

Adil Al Mulla FCIPS

Adil is one of the leaders behind the success of Procurement professionalism in the UAE and Middle East and the main driver for Procurement & Supply Management Transformation for Emirates Airlines and Etihad Airways.

He is a highly accomplished business professional with extensive working knowledge in the Aviation industry, culminating in more than 25 years dedicated experience.

Adil commits to take responsibility in promoting procurement professionalism among ME and Europe especially within Government and Public Sector organisations by introducing licensing and certification; to lead meetings with organisation Executives to promote advocacy among their teams; to provide free training for schools and colleges who introduce Procurement as a subject and to support women in Procurement and their professionalism within M.E And Europe