Scope and influence of procurement and supply [L4M1]

Sample Questions
INFONT Logistics International Ltd

INFONT is a reputable logistics company with headquarters at its multimillion dollar Distribution Centre located just ten miles from the country’s main sea port. The port handles all bulk imports and exports of its clients. INFONT also owns two warehouses within the country and has contracted an agent in each of the other five countries in the region. The services INFONT provides to its clients include warehousing, packaging and transportation of their finished products or production materials. It owns and operates transport vehicles, folk lift trucks and other material handling equipment (MHE). INFONT uses 10% of its warehouse space for its maintenance, repair and operational (MRO) requirements such as oils and tyres for the vehicles; pallets and plastic sheets for repacking split deliveries to clients; etc. In order to maintain the high level of service to its clients, a substantial part of the operating expenditure budget is allocated to staff and consultancy expenses. In addition, significant capital expenditure is also spent on a range of storage and handling equipment, vehicles and IT infrastructure. INFONT’s agents are contractually required to maintain the same level of space for their MRO requirements.

Some well-known retailers and manufacturers are loyal clients and they rely on INFONT’s high quality logistics services for their own successful competition in the market. INFONT’s business had been stable and growing prior to year 1.

However, due to concerns over deteriorating agency service levels, INFONT has decided that next year it will not renew the contract with its agent in the neighbouring country. Instead it will purchase and directly operate its own warehouse in that country. This is a major decision that will require a complex analysis of INFONT’s budget which involves many categories of spend to be considered in acquiring and operating the new warehousing facility.

(Q4) Milkshake Press

The executive board at Milkshake Press set its new three-year business strategy to “increase profitability by improving effectiveness and efficiency across all business areas”. To help achieve this, a new head of procurement, Martina Schweer was appointed to ensure that procurement activities were aligned to the new strategy. Martina arranged a meeting with the procurement team to start discussions about the strategy but was surprised to learn that the team had not previously considered overall profitability beyond negotiating the lowest price with suppliers.

Milkshake Press is a brand of milkshake mix sold in cafes and retail outlets in the United Kingdom and China. With offices in China and the UK, Milkshake Press directly employs 250 staff and has a procurement team of eight, three of whom are based in China.

As part of the strategy, Milkshake Press has developed a business plan which focussed on innovation. The most popular flavours were chocolate, banana, and strawberry. The brand has successfully increased its market share by 5%, by introducing new flavours like lime and cherry. They also undertook a successful re-branding exercise which increased their market share in China by 15%.
Question Four

Discuss FIVE ways in which the objective of profitability at Milkshake Press, might impact on its procurement activities.
