4. Entry onto CIPS qualifications

The CIPS website provides details of the entry criteria for each level <https://www.cips.org/en-gb/learn/qualifications/>.

We would advise you to progress through the levels in sequence so that you gain the underpinning knowledge as you move up the qualifications ladder.

You must complete all units for a level before you can achieve that qualification and receive a certificate.

5. Reasonable adjustment need

We have a responsibility to ensure that you have equal opportunity to reach your full potential and can provide additional support in some cases.

In the first instance, you should contact your study centre. If you are a self-study student you should contact us at assessment.team@cips.org. Further information is available at <https://www.cips.org/en-gb/learn/student-zone/policies-and-procedures/>.

6. Special consideration

Sometimes an incident may occur during an exam which you may feel has impacted on your ability to perform well. Where this is the case, you should refer to the special consideration section of the reasonable adjustment policy at <https://www.cips.org/en-gb/learn/student-zone/policies-and-procedures/>.

7. Cancellation, refunds and credit transfer

Where a booking has been made on our website, there is a 14 day 'cooling off period' where cancellation can be made. This period begins on the day after the day on which the contract (entry and payment) is concluded as notified by us in accordance with these terms. If you are unable to cancel through the website, please email your request to assessment.team@cips.org. In this case, you will receive a full refund of the price paid for the assessment via the original method in which you have paid.

After this date, no applications for cancellation can be accepted and no refund will be provided.

The only exception to this is unless it is for medical reasons, either during the examination or for a significant period of time leading up to the examination. Medical evidence must be provided in all cases within 14 days of the examination date. If an exception is granted, the exam fee will be refunded, however venue fees are non-refundable.

Credit transfer

CIPS Awarding Body is regulated by several education regulators around the world. Our qualifications are internationally recognised in over 150 countries across the globe. The integrity of the qualifications must continually meet the needs of industry and to ensure this, we periodically review the syllabus. Any assessment credits awarded during one syllabus may not automatically transfer to a subsequent syllabus. Changes to the syllabus with transition arrangements will be announced prior to launch, so you should keep your membership (current) and online CIPS profile up-to-date to ensure you receive regular updates. Notifications about syllabus changes will also be published on our website.
